YES STUDENT OF THE WEEK

This week, we congratulate first grader, Brielle Ortellana Argueta, on being the YES student of the week for lending her scissors to her classmate.

VETERAN'S DAY ART AND CARDS

Our students made cards and art for veterans in Art class with Mrs. Fleming. The beautiful artwork and special messages will be delivered to the Long Island State Veterans Home in Stony Brook.

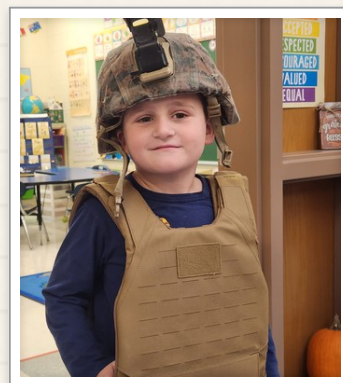

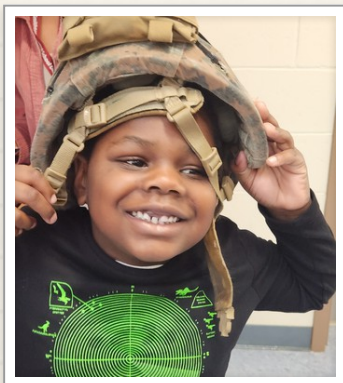

A SPECIAL VISIT TO KINDERGARTEN

Mrs. Biangazzo, Kindergarten Teacher at St. James Elementary School had her husband, Robert, a Marine Corps Veteran and her son, Robert presently serving in Marine Corps Reserves visit today to honor Veterans Day. The children had a great time trying on the helmets, goggles, and seeing the food eaten while in the field. Fun was had by all while learning the meaning of Veterans Day.

CIRCUS AND QUIZ SHOW

This week, all St. James Elementary students were treated to a fun and exciting Cultural Arts experience by our PTA. Students in K-2 were delighted by the National Circus Project and our 3-5 graders had a blast with the Quiz Show. Thank you to Jen Lavoie for all of her work as our PTA's Arts in Education representative who coordinates these experiences for our kids.

OUTDOORS NUTCRACKER REHEARSAL

Mrs. Braunreuther took her students from Mrs. Collett's class outside today for Nutcracker practice. They did great and were so cute! The photos show them rehearsing the "Party Guest Dance." We look forward to their big performance next month!
