LIVING HISTORY SERIES

PRESENTS

AROUND ST. JAMES THE GHOSTS ARE TALKING!

Hear from Joe Giaquinto, paranormal investigator and medium, tell the personal stories of local area ghosts who haunt Long Island.

He returns to the St. James Community Cultural Arts Center by popular demand to give us a supernatural glimpse into the lives, personalities, and challenges of Long Island's historic spirits. With over 40 years in the field of paranormal investigative work, Joe has collaborated on several books about Long Island's ghostly past, authored by historian Keriann Planagan Brosky.

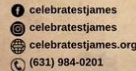

Join Celebrate St. James for this special event and learn firsthand about the lives of our local ancestors.
