You are cordially invited to join us for a special seminar on "The Green Initiative: Shaping Our Future," in attendance by NYS Senator Mario Mattera, Smithtown Town Supervisor Edward Wehrheim, NYS Assemblyman Michael Fitzpatrick, SC Legislator Robert Trotta, and Nissequogue Mayor Richard Smith.

Date: Friday, May 3rd, 2024

Time: 7:00 PM

Location: St. James Community Cultural Arts Center, 176 2nd Street, St. James NY 11780

The seminar will feature insights from global leaders Frank Dalene and Neil Rosen of the US Green Building Council - Long Island, who will discuss transforming buildings and communities to create a better future.

Learn about the "GREEN" makeover of the Calderone Theater Building for the St. James Community Cultural Arts Center and discover actionable steps for sustainability in our community and homes.

Don't miss this opportunity to ask the experts your questions and gain valuable knowledge about shaping a greener future for generations to come.

Attendance is free. We look forward to seeing you there!
