SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Updates – The Superintendent brought the Board up-to-date on the following items of interest:

- Six Smithtown High School students have been distinguished as National Merit Semi-Finalists. They are: Mary Grace Apostoli, Sara Bradshaw, Michael Chen, Kara Greenfield, Kristin Hall, and Allison Rapp. These students scored in the top one percent of students throughout the country who took the 2005 PSAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.
- Seventeen Smithtown High School students have been named Commended Students in the National Merit Program and have received Letters of Commendation. These students scored in the top five percent of more than 1.4 million students who entered the competition by taking the 2005 PSAT. The students are: Kathleen Cervo, Lindsay Cooper, Casey Curnan, Victoria Hung, Francis Mule, Kyle Scott and Michelle Toscano from High School West, and Kevin Barnett, Brittany Commins, Eric Deutsch, Samuel Friedman, Bridget Germain, Ian Host, Sameer Iyer, Joshua Lalo, Catherine Pizzano and Malora Winship from High School East.
- Ian Holst, a senior at Smithtown High School East, and Zeynep Basaran, a senior at High School West, have been selected as the recipients of the 2006 Rensselaer Medal, sponsored by Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. They are being recognized for their outstanding achievements in the fields of science and math during their high school careers.
- Meet the Teacher and Back-to-School nights are being held in our schools throughout September and October.
- Lisa Katter, Smithtown PTA Council President, was recently awarded the Life Achievement Award from the National PTA.
- Students throughout the District observed Constitution Day on September 15 in a variety of ways. For example, at Branch Brook children dressed up as colonists and King George III for grade level assemblies. Accomsett Elementary School students celebrated by dressing as the Statue of Liberty, singing patriotic songs, and discussing the Constitution in their classrooms. At Mills Pond, fast facts about the Constitution were shared by fifth graders who read the morning announcements. Throughout the week, students learned about the Constitution and the Bill of Rights in their classes, and then developed class constitutions. Using quill pens, students added their signatures to their documents, which were then displayed in the hallway for Meet the Teacher Night at Mills Pond.
