

THE WEST WEEKLY

December 20, 2024

The German Honor Society Donates Over 150 Toys

Members of the German Honor Society (pictured to the left are senior members Dylan Drannbauer, George Siolos, Andrew Reji and Rodrigo Argueta) recently held a toy drive where they partnered with the ReesSpecht Life Foundation and the Family Service League of Suffolk County to donate over 150 toys. Thank you to all of the members and their advisor Mrs. Culloton for this incredible community service endeavor!

Wilson Tech Students Show Off Their Carpentry Skills With Bench Project

West Musicians Spread Holiday Cheer with Carols Around the Building

West Students Graduate New Peer Diversion Program

Seven West students recently graduated from the Peer Diversion Program as part of the Suffolk County Department of Probation. These students will now sit in as jurors on Youth Probation court cases and will help render decisions and rehabilitation efforts for individuals who are in the probation system. Many of these students are interested in using this experience to pursue careers in law and law enforcement.

Pictured below: Olivia Vinasco, Madison Redmond, Morgan Petti, Allyson Campos, Alexis Horner, Janvi Sharma, Giuseppe Pugliese

West Senior Soccer Standout Jake Hutter Earns League MVP and All-State Honors

College Oceans Classes Receive Blue School Certification for Their Participation in the Long Island Sound Summit and Reducing PFA's in the Sound

