

THE WEST WEEKLY

March 18, 2025

DECA Impresses at State Competition

HSW DECA brought 27 students to compete in this year's New York State Career Conference, held March 5th to March 7th in Rochester. There were over 3,000 students from across the state competing in various business topics such as; marketing, finance, hospitality, and entrepreneurship. Students competed in either tests and role plays, or written manuals and presentations. The club earned 17 Top 10 medals, while 11 members will attend and compete at the International Career Development Conference this April in Orlando, FL.

ICDC Qualifiers include:

- Catherine Piccininni, Katerina Miller, Quinn Wroobel – 3rd Place – Community Giving Project
- Ashlynn Renkowski, Isabella Paliwoda, Maribella Marciano – 3rd Place – Start-Up Business Plan
- Charlotte Muratore – 1st Place State Champion – Professional Selling
- Gabrielle Guttieri, Emma Risolo – School Based Enterprise Gold Certification
- Brody Meier, Lanie Ryder – Thrive Leadership Academy

Top 10 Medal winners include: Finley VanDeusen, Lanie Ryder, Sidney Marks, Yusuf Husainy, Catherine Piccininni, Katerina Miller, Quinn Wroobel, Ashlynn Renkowski, Isabella Paliwoda, Maribella Marciano, Charlotte Muratore, Kate Braun, Brody Meier, Katie Dunn

In addition, the following seniors were recognized by the state and inducted into the NY State DECA Honor Society: Kate Braun, Charlotte Muratore, Janvi Sharma, Adriana Richford, Gavin German, Andrew Gelfand, Madeline Sacco

Congratulations to all competitors on all of their hard work, success, and dedication!

Winter Sports Athletes Earn All-State Honors at NYSPHSAA Championships

Five West Students Recognized for Outstanding Academic Achievement

Five remarkable scholars from West recently earned the distinction of National Merit Finalists! This award recognizes students for their incredible academics, hard work and dedication. Pictured left to right: Ms. Freund, Ms. Baker-Dorney, Ms. Shanley, Catalina Kreitzman, Sierra Needham, Heng Ye, Joseph Davide, Ms. Randall, Mr. Agostino and Natallie Marshall (pictured to the right)

