October brought many more memorable moments, all enjoyed in our newly renovated theater. Oh What a Night brought the magic of Broadway to our stage with an exciting performance of favorite songs. Our 9/11 Remembrance Art Exhibit was especially moving, bringing attendees together to share personal memories and experiences. We wrapped up the month with a unique Glow-in-the-Dark Paint Night, where young artists had the opportunity to paint in the dark using glowing paints for a fun and memorable creative experience!

As we welcome November, the excitement continues with a new lineup of live music, theater performances, art exhibits, and creative workshops. Take a look at what's coming up and make plans to join us for another month filled with arts, entertainment, and community!

Final Week: Remembrance and 9/11

This is your last opportunity to experience our moving 9/11 Remembrance Art Exhibit. Through powerful and personal works of art, the exhibit honors the lives remembered and the stories, memories, and experiences that continue to connect us. Many of the pieces are available for purchase, offering a chance to take home a meaningful work of art while helping support the continued growth of Celebrate St. James. Stop by the gallery before this special exhibit closes!

A Christmas Movie Premiere with a Purpose!

Join us Friday, November 6 for a special red-carpet premiere of Christmas at the Interlaken, written and directed by Candice T. Cain of @gemellifilms!

Meet the cast, enjoy red carpet photos, appetizers, and a heartwarming holiday film!

School Day Off Art Workshop
Parade of Imagination

Wednesday, November 11, 10:00-1:00

Let creativity take center stage! Young artists will combine drawing and sculpture to create their own imaginative city parade scene. First, they'll draw a New York City street scene, then step into the role of balloon designers to create a colorful 3D foil parade balloon to float above the city skyline. A fun, hands-on day of art, creativity, and imagination!

Advance registration required. Before and after care available for an additional fee.

Call to Artists: Light, Shadow & Reflection

Drop off: November 15-23
Reception December 6, 1:00-3:00

Celebrate St. James invites artists to submit original artwork for a juried exhibition exploring the fascinating interplay of light, shadow, and reflection.

Artists are encouraged to interpret the theme in their own unique way, exploring light and darkness, reflections, transparency, contrast, and the ways light transforms the world around us. Submissions may range from realistic to abstract and may include painting, drawing, photography, sculpture, mixed media, and other artistic mediums.

This exhibition will celebrate the beauty, mystery, and creative possibilities of light while offering opportunities to connect art with science, perception, and the natural world.
