

THREE VILLAGE HISTORICAL SOCIETY + MUSEUM
INVITES YOU TO:

FARMERS MARKET SUMMER WORKSHOPS

Farmers Markets are about more than shopping small and supporting local - they are a place to learn, grow, spend time with friends & family, and connect with your community!

Little learners are invited to get their hands in the dirt with a series of gardening workshops designed to spark curiosity, foster their love of nature, and explore where food comes from.

Led by educators and taking place every 20 minutes from 3 - 6 pm during the Three Village Farmers Market.

Ideal for ages 4 - 12 - must be accompanied by an adult.

Dates:

Friday, June 12th and July 17th: History Rocks! From Sea to Shining Sea

Paint your own rocks and seashells to celebrate Long Island 250 - take them home with you, or leave them to decorate the museum gardens

Friday, June 26th: Decorate Picture Frames

Make summer memories extra special by decorating your own picture frame

Friday, July 10th: Create Your Own Tea Blend

Learn about the alternatives to British taxed tea while you make your own blend using herbs found in colonial gardens
